No power plant as yet has taken over the business of laying the egg. So the hen still has a little something to cackle over.

EUREKA! This was the great shout of the mathematician when he discovered a certain principle he had been looking for a long time. We feel like making a strong demonstration when we see the splendor of service being rendered through all these years of the Levett people to every person in reach of the city of Elba to reach right of way to the call of God. He is calling you through these consecrated servants of His, to every service under the big cool tent. It is a great privilege for us to have a free chautauque, but from a standpoint of erudition Elba has never had such a man to lecture. So if you have all the religious experience you are looking for—and a man never has—come for the aesthetic culture you might derive from coming in contact with this wonderful evangelistic party.

We have mailed 3000 circulars to as many farmers advertising these meetings of Mr. O'Neal, and the writer did not know there were as many farmers in the county as there are—until he began to try to put a circular in the hands of every farmer in the county. Mr. O'Neal is one of the best farmers in Alabama and has done more for the co-operation among farmers than any other farmer in the state. Mr. O'Neal has running invitations to speak to farmers in every state in the union on what Alabama farmers have accomplished through co-operative effort. We feel sure that a large crowd will attend his address.

WEEDS BEGIN TO DAMAGE NUMBERS OF COTTON FIELDS.
Up until last week we had seen very little serious damage from the weeds, but several fields visited in the past few days disclose the sad realities of weed damage to a serious degree. When a lot of fresh squares punctured are in evidence, begin to poison and follow it up with three applications four days apart.

FARM BUREAU CAMPAIGN GOING NICELY; WEEVILS BEGIN TO DAMAGE NUMBERS OF COTTON FIELDS SERIOUSLY, SAYS AGENT

Last Monday week we started a campaign in Coffee County for members in the Farm Bureau. Messrs. Barton, Pearson, McGully, Mullins, and Fair from Montgomery office spent the greater part of last week in the county soliciting members in company with community leaders in each section.

A nice showing was made in increased membership and cotton marketing sign-up, and we are continuing the drive again this week. There are about 1000 members in the Farm Bureau. They have no trouble assisting their members in marketing most any farm commodity because they are a strong financial organization and money speaks in organizing a business.

It will not be a very big burden on any one to cut all weeds and grass about the premises and destroy all trash and waste matter, and this may be the means of saving a general epidemic of sickness.

Besides adding to the health conditions of the town, it will be in a great measure a beautiful sight to see the people of the county of others as well as your self, join in this movement now, today, and have a general weed cutting and cleaning up around your place.

MR. BRUNSON ENTERTAINS FOR VISITOR.
A lovely courtesy was extended on Thursday afternoon of last week when Mrs. W. M. Brunson entertained, honoring her guest, Mrs. N. C. Robertson, of Mobile. The apartment was abloom with summer flowers, presenting an ideal setting. Breakfast was played at four tables, on which were bon-bon dishes of candy and salted almonds.

Those sharing this courtesy were the honor guests, Messrs. James Meyer, C. P. Lee, Dudley, and Willie Michel, Hendrix, Jeter, Vardie, Wright, James, English, Harris, Murphree, and Misses Annaloben Symonds, Lurline Ham, Sallie Page, Zedie Rowe, Louise Leibert, Mabel and Beatrice Brunson, Lillie and Vivian Harper.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Smith in West Elba. This home is being built on one of the lots between the residence now occupied by Mr. Smith and the store. It will have five rooms and be modern in every respect.

Federal J. Farris, at Elba, is the Federal Loan man. Unlimited amount of money to loan on farm lands at 5 1/2 per cent interest. Farmers—if you need money come to see him. As quick as the quickest. Services guaranteed.

ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, JULY 17TH, 1924.

CONTEST HEARING HAS BEEN PUT OFF FOR SEVERAL DAYS

As was stated in The Clipper last week, the hearing of the Eagerton-Kyser contest was postponed until Wednesday afternoon. The hearing continued until Friday, and was postponed at that time till this week.

Announcement is now made that the hearing has been postponed until next week or perhaps the next, no definite date having been set. During the hearing the committee was in progress last week about one-fourth of the persons whose votes had been contested took the stand and offered evidence in regard to their eligibility as a voter. Figuring on this as a basis, several days will yet be consumed in the hearing, before the committee can come to any conclusion as to the matter.

Hon. Edward O'Neal, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau, will speak to the farmers and business men of Elba and surrounding territory in the court house this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

PEANUT GROWERS.
Don't pick your peanuts on a machine that splits, cracks and leaves them full of trash, hay, stems and pods. If you cannot sell them for good or shelling purposes.

Put your peanuts in first class commercial condition. In order to secure best prices pick them on a LILLISTON Peanut Picker. It thoroughly cleans the nuts and don't crack or burst them all to pieces. Ask your local peanut buyer or your neighbor who uses a Lilliston Picker about them. They last longer and repair bills are less.

Lilliston Peanut Pickers, guaranteed by Kerosene Engines, hay balers and repairs are sold in South-East Alabama by Coffey Mercantile Co., Enterprise; Malheur-Harris Motor Co., Dothan; C. D. Chapman & Co., Geneva; Bonneau-Jeter Hardware Co., Elba; Bryan-Faulk Motor Co., Seward; Ozark Motor Co., Ozark; J. S. Carroll Motor Co., Troy; A. E. Government weather forecasts are being used to great advantage by farmers in handling hay and other crops depending so vitally upon weather conditions. The county agent or county Farm Bureau can help farmers get this information.

Newbie Items.

Most all the farmers are through laying by their crops, some of them are fine, except we are having a little too much rain, and it is suiting the boll weevil a little too much. Says Mr. Bill Boll Weevil, if we have lots of rain we are going to get your cotton, but if the sun shines we can't do much, so I am sure they all would be glad of sunshine.

ELBA, ALABAMA.

RECORD VETCH CROP IS NOW EXPECTED.

Auburn, Ala., July 14.—Preparations are now being made by Alabama farmers to plant the biggest crop of hairy vetch on record. This is evidenced by the fact that orders for ready carloads of seed have already been placed through Farm Bureau channels and additional orders continue to come in. In Dallas County alone, which is the leading hairy vetch county in Alabama, orders for two carloads are on hand and a third is expected.

In the opinion of members of the agricultural faculty and Extension Service specialists here, the chief reason why so many farmers are turning to hairy vetch is because it has established itself as Alabama's leading winter legume. Although last winter was the most severe in many years most attempts with hairy vetch were successful. Out of 14 tests conducted by the Experiment Station in cooperation with farmers in different parts of the State eleven were successful while three were failures.

Hairy vetch can be used for different purposes but its chief use is that of building soil. As a soil builder it is outstanding, adding a large amount of nitrogen and organic matter, which are needed most from a standpoint of plant food and soil building. Because of its advantages as a soil builder county agents are strongly urging farmers to place orders for seed now so that they may be ready to plant at the right time this fall. October is the main month for doing so.

Last year Alabama women and girls who enrolled in military work under the home demonstration agents made 8,627 hats worth $28,100. The cost per hat was very small but the savings was large.

Postage stamps are made from a pulp from spruce trees more than 50 years old, year being felled for the purpose.

FIVE RULES.

1.—Go to church at least once on Sunday. 2.—Read the Bible every day. 3.—Pray every day. 4.—Help somebody every day. 5.—Go to prayer meeting regularly. Those are the FIVE RULES given by Dr. Culpenter to keep a man from backsliding. He says if any man will do these five basic things he will get closer to God.

These Prayer-meetings have been for men and women are both a far-reaching influence over the city. With rain almost every service we have over 100 ladies, and about 50 men present. On four nights we have about 1200 under the tent at regular services to hear the greatest preacher that ever came to Elba.

We have children's services at stated times, and if you let your child miss you have let him miss a great opportunity.

The Juniors have, without suggestion from any body, organized a tri-weekly prayer meeting. They met first at Mrs. W. W. Sanders and next at Mrs. G. G. Johnson's. Lucy Sanders led the first and Hazel Blair the second.

Ministers from other towns who have visited us during the past week are: Rev. M. T. Moore, Brockton; Rev. H. C. Threadrill, Enterprise; Rev. S. U. Turnipseed, Troy; Dr. W. P. Hart, Troy; Rev. Mr. Jones, Andalusia; Rev. M. Carroll, Ozark; Rev. Mr. Helms, and Mr. Russell of New Brockton.

There are several hundred persons almost in hearing of the preacher's voice, who have not considered it worth while to hear this great gospel preacher. We are sorry for those who cannot and do not see fit to come.

We are glad to see Mrs. Bob Cooper back from a long stay at the hospital at Montgomery where she has been attending little Bancroft, who has had a long spell of colic and measles.

If the rain is too severe at service time, and the tent is overly damp, services will be held in the church. If you hear the church bell, you will know the tent has been abandoned for that service which will be held at the church.

THE Hydro-Power Decade IN ALABAMA

The first of a series of advertisements dealing with the relationship of this company to the state at large.

Statewide hydro-electric power service was first introduced in Alabama in 1914 when the vision of Alabama men was realized by the opening of Lock 12.

Coincided with the advent of hydro-electric power there began in Alabama the greatest industrial revival which this or any other State has experienced in a single decade.

The paramount needs of most industries are raw materials, labor, a short haul to ready markets and POWER.

Of these needs—POWER—cheaper and more abundant than is available in other sections—is one of the fundamental and final requirements.

When hydro-electric power became available for industrial purposes, the eyes of the nation turned to Alabama's raw materials and resources.

The growth of industry in Alabama is reflected to a marked degree in the steady increase of power consumption. In a connected load of 6500 horsepower in 1913 to 360,000 horsepower on December 31st, 1923.

The effects of this industrial expansion have been confined to no particular locality. While the benefits have been greatest in those towns and cities where the company supplies power, all sections of the state have profited indirectly from the statewide scope of Alabama Power Company activities.

In this industrial development Alabama Power Company has played more than a passive role—that of furnishing the power to new industries which require it—it has advertised Alabama opportunities and assets—gone actively into the field to bring new industries into Alabama to help utilize Alabama's potential resources.

Alabama Power Company operations are confined exclusively in Alabama. It is officiated by Alabama men. Its stock is owned by citizens in nearly every town in the state. It is throughout—an Alabama corporation.

It is reasonable therefore for it to take every means at its command to encourage aggressively the development of Alabama on the theory that the growth of this state and the growth of the company are indissolubly bound to each other—that whatever benefits the one will benefit the other.

Alabama's progress in the last ten years—the hydro-power decade—proves this fact.

PLOW COTTON SHALLOW AND BEGIN POISONING THIS WEEK, SAYS AGENT; URGES FARMERS TO TRY HAIRY VETCH

It is very necessary to run through your cotton once to the middle with a large sweep or other tool that will just break the crust and uproot the carpet of very fine grass that has sprung up after the several days rain of last week.

Begin Poisoning This Week.

In fields where heavy infestation of weevils is causing considerable squares to fall, it would be well to apply 5 to 7 lbs. of calcium arsenate dust per acre. We can deliver the poison at $10.75 per hundred pounds, and you will need the small hand machine gun outfit to apply the poison.

Place Orders for Hairy Vetch Now.

We are getting up co-operative shipments of vetch seed, and would like for every farmer to plant at least one acre. One acre well seeded to vetch and turned under next April and planted to corn will double the yield of corn as compared with acre where vetch is not turned under. We need better soils in Coffee County. Everybody try an acre in hairy vetch this fall. Place your order now.

O'Neal Speaks to 400 Farmers in Coffee Thursday.

Last Thursday Mr. Ed O'Neal, President of the Alabama Farm Bureau, spoke to two large audiences of farmers in the county. Our campaign for membership to date totals 94 new members. We are anxious for every farmer in the county to enroll as a member in the Farm Bureau. It will help you buy your fertilizer cheaper and sell your farm products for a better price. So why not join?

McGulley, Giles and Fair Assisting in Drive this Week.

This week the above men from the Montgomery office of the Farm Bureau will shell the country for more members in our organization. We are asking that every member of the Baptist Church here be present at the service.

Young Man Killed in Automobile Mishap

Headland Wiregrass Journal: Thomas Hasty, a boy of about 21 years of age, of Columbia, was killed in an automobile accident on the Headland-Columbia road Sunday night.

The Ford in which the boy was sitting, reports say, was being driven by John Thomas, and there were several others in the car when the accident happened. The car, according to report, was being run without lights, and in order to avoid a collision with a buggy, which was not seen until they were close upon it, a sharp swerve was made. The car is said to have turned over several times, righted itself and run 30 or 40 feet in a direction opposite from that which was being taken. Hasty was badly crushed, and died almost instantly. None of the other occupants of the car were seriously injured.

Messrs. C. S. Allred, W. T. Whitman, Albert Prescott, and W. F. Cooper were visitors at Clayton Sunday.

MR. W. C. SMITH, WELL KNOWN CITIZEN, DIED MONDAY AFTERNOON

Mr. W. C. Smith, one of Elba's best known and highly respected citizens, died at his home Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, after an illness of several months duration.

Mr. Smith had been in very feeble health for the past year, having suffered a stroke of paralysis, but pneumonia is said to have been the immediate cause of his death. His death was not unexpected, although it comes as a shock to his family and friends and has caused deep sorrow throughout this entire section.

Mr. Smith was nearly eighty years of age, having been born on August 20, 1835, at LaFayette, Chambers County, Ala. He was a Confederate Veteran having enlisted early during the war between the States and served throughout the conflict. He was a member of Company A, Fourteenth Alabama Regiment, and was the 14th Field Artillery and a special train will carry them to their destination.

The local organization has three commissioned officers and about fifty men. Three men and the sixteen horses belonging to the organization are already at Camp Bragg, having gone up last week.

Under the direction of Captain Chas. L. Rowe and Lieutenants Fred M. Harper and John R. Clark, the local unit has made a splendid record during the past year, and it is expected that equally as good record will be made during the encampment.

Mr. Smith moved to Coffee County in the year 1896, from LaCounty, and for many years lived in the Pine Level community where he was a successful farmer. He always took an active part in all public affairs of his community and was a very highly respected citizen. About nine or ten years ago he moved to Elba and has since made his home here.

Mr. Smith is survived by his devoted wife and the following children: Mrs. T. J. Whitman, Elba; Mrs. A. C. Young, Elba; W. K. Smith, Birmingham; A. A. and T. E. Smith, of Shalmore, Texas; W. T. Smith, Detroit, Mich.; A. C. Smith, Springdale, Ark.; O. C. C. N. O. L. and J. D. Smith, of Elba.

He is also survived by forty-three grand-children and twenty-five great-grand-children, one sister, Miss Mary E. Smith, of Opelika, Ala., and one brother, Jack Smith, of Weatherford, Texas. All of his children, except Mr. T. E. Smith, who was detained by sickness in his family, were present at the funeral and burial.

The funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church of Elba, Mr. Smith having been a member of this Church. Rev. F. M. Lowrey, the pastor conducted the services, assisted by Rev. J. B. Culpenter, Sr. of Evergreen cemetery.

GIST ESTIMATES ALABAMA CROP AS 880,000 BALES

Montgomery, Ala., July 21.—F. W. Gist, agricultural statistician, in a summary of reports on the condition of the cotton crop in Alabama, today stated that Alabama should produce 880,000 bales of cotton this year, if there is no set back before harvest.

This would be the largest cotton crop produced in Alabama since 1915, according to Mr. Gist, who said that slightly more than one million bales were produced in that year.

The statement of Mr. Gist follows: "If the cotton crop of Alabama this year continues as good as at present until harvest, the state ought to produce about 880,000 bales of five hundred pounds gross weight each, according to the condition reported to exist on July 16, which was 70 per cent of normal. This condition indicates an average yield of 122 pounds and the acreage now growing is 3,190,000. This would be the largest amount of cotton produced in this state since 1915, when slightly more than a million
